GNNSJ Leeds Welcome Gill Hicks And The WALKTALK Initiative At The Gurdwara On 19th July 2008 In Full Support

Gill Hicks, 37, who lost both legs in the 2005 attacks, began the walk from Leeds to London on 19 July.

She hopes her Walk Talk initiative will get people talking about their beliefs and unite communities.

It's a nationwide initiative to bring together people who may otherwise never meet, never talk and, almost certainly never walk side-by-side. It will focus on humanity - on all that we have in common - and aim to create a new 'path' of understanding and reconciliation.

WALKTALK is expected to take in the following route from Leeds - London :

Mandela Gardens – Leeds

Beeston

Morley

Dewsbury

Wakefield

Barnsley

Rotherham

Sheffield

Chesterfield

Mansfield

Nottingham

Loughborough

Leicester

Market Harborough

Northampton

Bedford

Luton

St Albans

Borough of Barnet

Golders Green

Hampstead Garden Suburb

Brick Lane
Central London
